

Table of Contents

List of Figures	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Foreword	xiii
Introduction	1
Chapter I
Brush and Abacus: Scholars and Merchants Seek Profit and Place	11
Commercial Contagion	14
Scholars' Dilemma	23
"Trade and Study"	27
Profitable Niches	34
Scholars and the Rise of Merchants	39
Blurred Social Boundaries	49
Chapter II
Seal and Abacus: Officials and Their Agents Catch the Fever	61
The Fusion of Seal and Abacus	62
Masters and Bondsmen	68
Tax Evasion	76
The Case of Dong Fen	85
Chapter III
Tonic or Toxic? Scholars Contest the Implications of Profit	99
Benefits of the Market Economy	100
The Market and Moral Decay	106
The Middle Ground	117
The Debasement of Officialdom	120

Chapter IV A Roiling Cauldron:
Imperial Misrule and Factionalism Fan the Flames	127
The Shadows of Hongwu and Zhang Juzheng	129
Obstreperous Emperor	134
Dogged Opposition	139
The Grand Secretariat's Faction	146
Rancor over Examinations	153
The Guoben Controversy	160
Institutional Erosion	165
Partisan Divide at Home	171
A Decade of Considerable Significance	174
Chapter V Seething Protest:
Great Families Provoke Public Outbursts	179
Hai Rui's Abortive Populism	181
The Huzhou Disturbance against Dong Fen	183
Student Agitators	195
The Songjiang Riots against Dong Qichang	198
Chapter VI On a Sinking Ship:
Gentry Reformers Respond to Crises	207
Charity	209
Tax Reforms	218
Disaster Relief	227
The Final Descent	233
Afterword	241
Bibliography	245
Glossary and Index	261